

IB HITLER

ADDITIONAL READING

While studying IB History it is essential that you do lots of additional reading in order to give you greater depth of knowledge and to enhance your vocabulary- remember to keep adding to your glossary.

You should spend about 1 hour per week doing additional reading. Therefore, as we study each topic you should read at least one moodle article (print off before reading) and one recommended chapter. Once you have done this you should tick and date to show it has been completed. Also before your exam you MUST have read all of the articles and chapters below!!!

BOOKS:

Hitler and Nazi Germany – Stephen J. Lee

Germany and the Third Reich 1933-45 – Geoff Layton

Germany 1858-1990: Hope, Terror and Revival – Alison Kitson
