Let’s be honest

EXAMPLES OF MALPRACTICE

PLAGIARISM
the representation of the ideas or work of another person as your own

COLLUSION
supporting malpractice by another person, as in allowing your work to be copied or submitted for assessment by another student

DUPPLICATION OF WORK
the presentation of the same work for different assessment components and/or subject requirements

DISCLOSING INFORMATION
sharing information with a fellow student or person about the content of an examination paper within 24 hours after the examination

MISCONDUCT DURING AN EXAMINATION
the possession of unauthorised material or devices

AVOID PLAGIARISM BY

- Crediting all sources you have used, even if you have paraphrased or summarised
- Clearly distinguishing between your work and the source being used (using quotation marks, indentation, or similar methods)
- Using referencing appropriately and consistently throughout your work
